25X1 [REDACTED] WEEKLY REPORT - 6 September 1983

25X1 b. T&I of Commo Equipment at [REDACTED] Two packaging specialists
 25X1 spent five days TDY at [REDACTED] to inspect and repack, as necessary, 18 racks of SC-3 communications equipment which was not export-packed properly by the manufacturer. Two of the racks were covered with mildew and were serviced by the Office of Communications' (OC) technician who accompanied the packaging specialists. Several racks were found improperly packaged by the vendor as dessicant had not been included within the barrier materiels.
 After the inspection of all racks was completed, the packaging specialists prepared the 18 racks for export in conformance with military specifications.
 OC is pursuing litigation against the manufacturer for improperly packaged
 25X1 equipment. [REDACTED]
